Not sure, will check with daughters. I did want to say "Kudos!" as I had a leak in my gas tank on the way to NJ. So I turned around, got the small purifier with car adapter and used it the entire way to eliminate the odor in the car and my luggage. What a lifesaver!! I used it in my room, too and was one of the few who did not have sinus or allergy troubles either. I am definitely sold!! Thanks for your support and continuing contact.
